TWO-DAY “OPERATION MOTHER’S DAY” CAMPAIGN IS IN FULL EFFECT FOR THE SIXTH YEAR: Jefferson County, Arkansas – May 8, 2012 – Beginning Thursday, May 10, 2012 through Friday, May 11, 2012 Jefferson County Sheriff’s Office Deputies will be out in force as they attempt to execute numerous outstanding warrants on deadbeat dads who are delinquent in paying court ordered child support.

Operation Mother’s Day was created by Sheriff Gerald Robinson during his 2006 bid for Jefferson County Sheriff, which he was successfully elected to in 2007. One of Sheriff Robinson’s many campaign promises was to hold deadbeat dads more accountable regarding financial support of their children. The mission of this operation is and always will be to “ensure children and families receive court-ordered financial and medical support” from deadbeat dads and/or non-custodial parents. Although complaints from single mothers regarding little to none financial support of their children from deadbeat dads has minimized since the launch of this operation, non-support from deadbeat dads continues to be a problem for some single mother’s struggling to make ends meet.

The names listed below are among those who sheriff’s office records currently show to be delinquent. Those individuals who are currently non-compliant with the Office of Child Support Enforcement relative to court ordered child support are strongly urged to become compliant prior to May 10, 2012. Those individuals who remain non-compliant through May 10, 2012 can surrender themselves to the W.C. “Dub” Brassell Adult Detention Center or risk being arrested during this operation.
